

As a NJ resident I am very pleased with the current Do Not Call policy. Unwanted telemarketing calls began to become a nuisance and constant interruption in homelife. Dinner time was especially difficult. As a consumer, I feel that I have a right to decide if I want a company to telephone me at home or not. I completely agree with Governor Codey. Do not change our current Do Not Call policy!